

FEBRUARY 27 - MARCH 9, 2008

CINEQUEST¹⁸

FILM FESTIVAL
SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA

GETTING HOME (LUI YE GUI GEN)

When a life-long friendship is strong and true, not even death can intervene.

Longtime workmates and pals Zhao and Liu Quanyou are enjoying a drink together, engaged in their usual banter, when Zhao suddenly realizes that his friend has died. Zhao knows there is only one honorable thing to do and that is to take his friend home.

THE CASE U.S. PREMIERE

Why is the case so heavy?

Frozen body parts, a milquetoast husband and his shrewish wife, and the serene scenery of Lijiang blend to shard, enter taining effect in this fresh black comedy.

FAMILY INC. WORLD PREMIERE

Surprises await the prodigal daughter's return to the family business. It doesn't get any more real than real life.

Emily Ting loved her life in New York City. But when her father requested she return to Hong Kong and take over the family business, Ting didn't exactly know how to say 'no.' She sacrificed all she had accomplished for a grueling new life as CEO in training for one of Hong Kong's most notorious toy companies.

DISCOVER ASIAN FILMS

Check out our whole Asian Lineup:

All About Dad (U.S.) - Sneak Peak!

The Mourning Forest (Japan)

Unfinished Girl (China)

Purchase tickets at:

www.cinequest.org

408 295 FEST

discover

